

Do not weaken Wisconsin's don't call list.

The FCC, acting as a voice of the public - which it is - should maintain its role in helping us keep big business off of our backs with telemarketing.

Come on, I dare you...government of the people, by the people, for the people...not government of the powerful, by the lobbyists, for the corporation.